

PROSPECTUS

OF THE
BLOOMFIELD AND MONTCLAIR
GAZETTE.

An independent weekly journal, devoted to Current News, Village Improvements, Town and County Affairs, Educational Interests, General Literature, and a free discussion of Social, Moral and Political Questions.

Entered by Wm. P. Lyon and Chas. M. Davis. The first number of New Volume to be issued on the first of February, 1878.

TERMS:

$2.00 A Year, in advance, on the reception of the first number.
$1.25 for 6 months, in advance, on the reception of the first number.
$.75 for 3 months, in advance, on the reception of the first number.
$.25 delivered by carrier, or mailed, postage prepaid.

As it is not probable that we shall get, for the first year, the number of single subscriptions necessary to establish the GAZETTE on a secure basis, we trust there may be among the liberal-minded well-wishers of the enterprise, many who will subscribe for two, three, four, five or more copies. We are confident the new series, which will be issued weekly, will be found superior in point of editorial ability to a model journal.

PLEASE RESEND PROMPTLY.

The attempt of California to acclimatize the Cashmere goat promises success, the animal attaining a larger size and yielding a finer fleece than in its native India.

PROSPECTUS FOR 1878—SIXTH YEAR.

THE ALDINE.

An illustrated monthly journal, universally admitted to be the handsomest Periodical in the World. A Representative and Champion of American Taste.

NOT FOR SALE IN BOOK OR NEWS STORES.

THE ALDINE, which issued with all the regularity, has none of the temporary or likely interest character of ordinary periodicals. It is an elegant volume of pure, light, and graceful literature; and a collection of pictures, the most exquisite and artistic, in black and white. Although each succeeding number affords a fresh pleasure to its friends, the real value and beauty of THE ALDINE will be most appreciated after it has been read at the close of the year. While other publications may claim superior cheapness, as compared with those of similar class, THE ALDINE is a unique and original conception, alone and unsurpassed in its kind. The possession of a complete volume cannot duplicate the quantity of the paper and engravings in any shape or number of volumes for ten times its cost; and then, there are the chronic, besides!

ART DEPARTMENT.

Notwithstanding the increase in the price of subscriptions, last Fall, when THE ALDINE assumed its present noble proportions and representative character, the edition was more than doubled during the past year; growing into a public favorite, and will support, a sincere effort in the cause of Art. The plans for the coming year, as announced by the publishers, will continue to be the most sanguine friends of THE ALDINE. In addition, THE ALDINE will reproduce examples of the best foreign painting, sculpture, and architecture, as well as the most valuable and complete collection of the most famous artists, through photographs, or copies of any kind.

A quarterly illustrated plates for 1878, appearing in the issues for January, April, July, and October, would be worth the cost of the subscription. The popular feature of a complete illustrated "Christmas" number will be continued.

THE LITERARY DEPARTMENT.

Will continue under the care of Mr. RICHARD HENRY STODDARD, assisted by the best writers and poets of the day, who will strive to make the ALDINE always in keeping with its artistic attractions.

TERMS.

$4 per annum, in advance, with Old Chromo-framed ALDINE, with literature, obtainable only by subscription. Cash for subscriptions must be sent to the publishers direct, or to the local agent in the nearest city.
